Poulter Bigelow, the magazine writer, in a statement Tuesday said that if President Roosevelt really intends to institute criminal proceedings against those who may have criticized the management and jobbery of the Isthmian Canal, he may start with Bigelow. MATRIMONIAL.

—A quiet, yet beautiful wedding was that of yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when Miss Harriet Juanita Hudson and Mr. Leonidas Anderson Bell were united in marriage at the home of the bride's foster-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Harris, on Pleasant street.

The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Harvey Smith, of Louisville, a brother-in-law of the bride, assisted by Rev. M. T. Chandler, of the Methodist church.

The house was beautifully and artistically decorated throughout with white flowers and green foliage. The bride never looked lovelier than in the Empire wedding gown of peacock blue directoire satin and white picture hat as she leaned upon the arm of the handsome groom, when they took the solemn vows that made them one.

The bride is the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Harris, and is a handsome, attractive and accomplished young woman, and by her cheerful and amiable disposition makes friends with all whom she comes in contact with.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bell, of Georgetown, and is now manager of the Paris Electric Light plant, and since his short stay in Paris has become one of our most popular young business men. We congratulate him on winning this charming young woman for his life partner.

The bride's traveling dress was a very becoming suit of Wisteria broad cloth with hat to match. They left after the ceremony on the 8:30 L. & N. train for a short stay in Cincinnati. Upon their return they will take board with Mr. and Mrs. Harris for the remainder of the winter.

The popular couple received sixty beautiful presents in silver and cut glass. Those present from Georgetown, the former home of the groom were: Mrs. John A. Bell, Misses Fannie and Lila Bell, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bell, Miss Sara Beall, Miss Fannie Shropshire, and Miss Frankie Thompson.

—Miss Josephine 'Hodges and Mr. William J. Arnott, of Harriman, Tenn. were united in marriage at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Grinnan on South Main Street at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. Elder Carey E. Morgan officiating. The bride came to Paris recently from Jacksonville, Fla., and had charge of the office of the Western Union Telegraph Company. The bridegroom is a telegraph operator at Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. Arnott left on the 8 o'clock interurban car for Lexington, where they took a train on the Queen & Crescent railroad for their home in Tennessee.

—The marriage of Mrs. Mary DeJarnette Howe to James E. Gray, both of near Paris, was solemnized at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday at the residence of Elder Carey E. Morgan the officiating minister. The attendants were Mrs. Sallie Erion, sister of the bride, and Mr. John Gray, brother of the bridegroom. The bride was attractive in a suit of white cloth, with hat and gloves to match. She is the daughter of Mr. Robert L. DeJarnette and resides with her father on the Bethlehem pike, and was recently given a divorce from Russell Howe. The bridegroom is a well-to-do Bourbon county farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray left on the 3:30 p. m. train on a bridal trip to Indiana, where they will spend a few days with Mrs. Gray's sister, Mrs. Edward Shekell, in Peru.

—The announcement of the engagement of Miss Virginia Carroll Kelly to Mr. Howell Colston Featherstone, has been received here by friends and relatives.

Miss Kelly is the daughter of Rev. Dr. Gilby C. Kelly, pastor of the Broad Street Methodist Episcopal church of Richmond, Va., and a niece of Mrs. Col. E. F. Clay, of Bourbon. The prospective bridegroom is a son of Hon. H. C. Featherstone, of Lynchburg, and is a member of the Virginia legislature from his native county.

—County Clerk Paton issued yesterday a marriage license to Mr. John T. Conway and Miss Hattie S. Cleaver.

BUTLER-SHOBE.

The handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Butler, on Vine street, was the scene Tuesday afternoon of one of the most beautiful weddings ever celebrated in Paris, when their daughter, Miss Margaret Prescott Butler, became the bride of Mr. William Merritt Shobe, of Salem, New Jersey.

The color scheme of the decorations was white and green and was elaborately carried out. Ropes of southern smilax fell in graceful folds from the archway separating the parlor from the music room and were caught on either side with bouquets of white roses. The mantles were banked with ferns and growing plants. The border around the ceiling was hung with smilax and holly. Vases and cut glass bowls of carnations and white roses added their beauty and fragrance completing a picture of tropical beauty.

The stairway from which the bridal party came was draped in smilax and holly, and the pedestal at the foot of the stairs was cotted with white roses. The library where the large number of handsome and costly presents of silver, cut glass, china and chests of imported linens, were to be seen, was garlanded with smilax, asparagus and holly and the mantels banked with vases of ferns and carnations.

The dining room was tastily decorated in smilax, ropes of which fell from the chandelier to the four corners of the table, the covering of which was lace over green. The green candles in silver and cut glass candelabra cast a subdued glow over the pretty scene. The china closet and side board banked with vases of carnations and white roses and holly made a charming background.

Kidd's Orchestra, of Lexington sounded Lohengrin's Bridal chorus for the entry of the bridal party as they descended the stairway. The bride, on the arm of her father, Mr. J. Henry Butler, who gave her in marriage, was preceded by her Maid of Honor, her sister, Miss Lorine Butler.

Passing from the hallway to the music room they were met by the bridegroom, on the arm of his best man, Mr. Craig Middleton, of Bowling Green. As the bridal party assembled beneath the floral arch Elder Carey E. Morgan, the officiating minister, pronounced the impressive ceremony that made the twain one.

The bride was lovely in a superb Directoire gown of ivory silk with bodice of Duchess lace, and carried a bouquet of Bride's roses.

Miss Lorine Butler, the Maid of Honor, was attractive in pink silk and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Shobe were tendered a reception, the hours being from 3 to 5.

In the receiving line were: Mr. and Mrs. William Merritt Shobe, Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Butler and Miss Ollie Butler.

In the library stood the second receiving line as follows: Miss Lorine Butler, Miss Shobe, and Mr. Middleton. During the hours of the reception punch was served in the music room the table being presided over by Miss Cloyd Harvey, of Huntington, W. Va., who was beautiful in white chiffon cloth gown, and Mrs. Swift Champ, who was charming in an imported gown of Copenhagen satin. In the dining room a buffet luncheon was served, consisting of substantial meats, salads, hot rolls and coffee.

Those who assisted in entertaining the several hundred guests were: Mrs. E. M. Dickson, Mrs. W. E. Board, Mrs. W. H. Harris, Miss Kate Alexander, Miss Frankie Butler and Miss Matilda Alexander.

The bride is one of Paris' most lovely and accomplished young women. She is possessed of a charm of manner that has made her a great favorite in society circles.

The bridegroom is a native Kentuckian and graduate of State University, in Lexington, and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Shobe, of Bowling Green, Ky. He is a prominent business man of Salem, New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Shobe left on the five o'clock Interurban car for Lexington where they left via the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad for a bridal trip to Louisville and the South. Upon their return they will visit relatives in Pittsburg, Pa., and will be at home Jan. 15 to their friends at Salem, N. J.

Suggestion From Andrew.

Andrew Carnegie, who is much in favor of peace, provided the great nations continue to purchase steel for battleships and cannon, is a great advocate of a close union between Great Britain and America. At a recent discussion on the subject between the steel king and some of his friends it was suggested that there was no good reason why the two nations should not become formally united, and "Andy" was asked to suggest an emblem, for such a union. "The dandelion," he replied promptly. "Dandy for the cute Yankee business man and the lion for Britain."

What Caused It.

Ashland is now experiencing a typhoid epidemic, there being over one hundred cases in the city. The contagion is said to be due to the fact that after a big fire at Catlettsburg exhausted the supply of chemically purified water from the reservoir which supplies Ashland, the old old pump at Ashland was started and water pumped directly from the river into an old reservoir near Ashland, which had not been used for several years.

Break it Up.

Now let the tariff tinkers favor at least one class of consumers—the universal class—and give the country a free table. It is not too much to say that on the majority of American tables butter is seen three times a day.

The price is rapidly advancing. It is in the hands of the trust. It is known that there are ten million pounds more butter in storage now than there was at this time last year, but notwithstanding this fact the price is clamorously asserting that the price is justified by the drought last summer, which prevented the production of the usual amount. Let us have free butter from Canada, Denmark and Holland. It will not affect the interest of the American farmer but it will break up the trust.

Holiday Gifts.

It is evident to even the most casual observer that the merchants of Paris, with their usual enterprise, made preparations for an immense holiday trade.

A tour of the stores show that for variety and beauty our merchants have stocks that can not be surpassed by any town or city in Central Kentucky.

The extent of the stocks also is a matter of surprise, and it is evident that our merchants anticipated an unusually large holiday trade and prepared for it accordingly.

No one will find it necessary to go elsewhere for holiday gifts; none can expect to find larger or more complete stocks from which to make selections; and finally, no one can buy them cheaper elsewhere. Therefore the News advises its readers to make their holiday purchases in Paris, thereby getting the most useful and beautiful goods, and saving yourself worry and trouble.

Naturally the Bourbon News readers always rely upon the advertisements in its columns and business firms represented there will reap their harvest of the holiday trade.

Remember there are only six more shopping days until Christmas, and early purchasers will have choice from full and complete stocks.

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper, contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days trust in knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper, contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

Earlywine on the ground.

It comes from Washington that Frank H. Hitchcock is expected to solve the delicate problem of how much of the Federal patronage in Kentucky Senator-elect Bradley will be allowed to distribute. Already serious disagreements are on among Kentucky Republicans over "pie." The Washington telegram in Tuesday's dailies concludes with the following:

"Postoffice squabbles promise to become numerous. The first is that over the Paris postoffice. Postmaster Earlywine is now in the city and was a caller at the Postoffice Department today. He is a candidate for reappointment, his time expiring next month. While he was formerly the private secretary of Senator Bradley, the Senator is now against him and is reported to have endorsed N. A. Moore. Earlywine's supporters believe he will win on the ground that Senator Bradley does not take office until March 4. Mr. Hitchcock will decide the case shortly."

Johnnie and Fritz Wed.

A New York dispatch Tuesday tells of the marriage of John W. Fox, Jr., formerly of Paris as follows:

"Formal admission that Miss Fritz Scheff, the comic opera star, and John Fox, Jr., were secretly married last Sunday was made Monday night by John C. Hunt, a mutual friend at the Knickerbocker Theater. Not even Charles B. Dillingham, Miss Scheff's manager, knew of the union, although Mr. Fox said some time ago he would make the singer his wife after Christmas."

"They were married Sunday," said Mr. Hunt, "at the Mt. Kisco home of Rector Fox, Mr. Fox's brother. I was best man. The officiating clergyman was Rev. D. Wallace of Kisco Methodist church. On account of the illness of Rector Fox's children no guests were invited."

The couple have taken up their home at 471 Park avenue, New York.

Death Was on His Heels.

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Where Bullets Flew.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done more for me than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c at Oberdorfer's drug store.

Beware of Frequent Colds.

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

Bank Officials Resign.

Squire Bassett and J. W. Appleton, respectively president and vice president of the Fayette National Bank of Lexington, and two of the oldest business men and bank officers of that city, resigned their positions with the bank Tuesday and J. Ed Bassett, son of the retiring president, was elected in the latter's stead and J. T. Tunis, of the wholesale grocery house of Curry, Tunis & Norwood, was elected vice president to succeed Mr. Appleton.
The resignations of both the old officers was on account of advanced age and failing health. Mr. Bassett has been president of the bank since January, 1873, while Mr. Appleton has been either vice president or director since the same year.

The Hat Crusade.

The Winchester Democrat and several other papers throughout the State are advocating the legislature's taking measures to reduce the size of women's hats, in order that men who do go to church may have an opportunity of observing the preacher during the delivery of the discourse. We do not care to go so far. The women themselves can remedy the matter by simply removing their hats, and probably it ought to be done. If some of them could be made to realize how they look in some of the extreme styles of this day and generation we imagine they would leave them off in church and out of church.

Second Attempt at Suicide.

Mrs. Lottie Thomason, wife of A.
B. Thomason, of Plum, this county, made the second attempt at self-destruction Monday and is now in a critical condition at the home of her parents,
Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bramblett.

Mrs. Thomason some three weeks ago attempted suicide by taking poison and was removed to the home of her parents and closely watched.
She obtained a quantity of strychnine
a few days ago and on Monday swallowed enough to kill several persons. Dr. P. L. McClure administered antidotes and applied a stomach pump and saved the despondent woman. Mrs. Thomason's parents and relatives are closely guarding her day and

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. E. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says, "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

"DO IT TO-DAY!"

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Bosche's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Natural Gas Line.

A pipe line is being laid to convey natural gas from West Virginia to Cincinnati, one hundred and sixty miles distant. The pipe is steel twenty inches in diameter and three sections make a wagon load. It is being laid in a ditch twenty-two inches below the surface. It will cost millions of dollars to complete the line but it is believed it will be a paying investment.

Not the Whole Artillery.

The Speaker of the House may be a Cannon, but he is not the whole artillery. The trouble is he thinks he is, and Congress has thought so and the people have thought so for so long that it is going to take something of a jar to show him and Congress and the people that he is not, says the Republican Louisville Herald.

The latter parties to the understanding, however, are waking up to the real truth, and Uncle Joe cannot persist in his attitude of opposition to progress if the signs of the times are as significant as we believe them to be.

This country wants watery improvement. Irrespective of party it demands that the great natural channels of trade and commerce be made adequate to opportunity and necessity. Republicans, Democrats, Socialists, Populists, even Prohibitionists, stand together on this great National policy.

Roosevelt and Taft have linked hands, Bryan has joined them, and it remains to be seen if Cannon can successfully block the will of the united people and their chosen leaders on this question.

Surely it is a travesty on our representative Government when one man, elected from one constituency, holding his Congressional office by a majority of a few thousand votes, can be quoted as an oracle whose fiat is regarded as final in face of this mighty and unanimous urging of the country to advance in this splendid step towards the realization of our dreams of growth and prosperity.

Let the Cannon roar, but be it remembered that he is only one small gun, that can be spiked if need be, and the rest of the artillery is in the hands of the people.

Doctors

say take Cod Liver Oil—they undoubtedly mean Scott's Emulsion.

It would be just as sensible for them to prescribe Quinine in its crude form as to prescribe Cod Liver Oil in its natural state. In the oil is emulsified and made easy to take—easy to digest and easy to be absorbed in to the body—and is the most natural and useful fatty food to feed and nourish the wasted body that is known in medicine today.

Scott's Emulsion

Nothing can be found to take its place. If you are run-down you should take it.

Proper Use of U. S. Mails.

Postmaster General VonMeyer, who is an enthusiastic advocate of the parcels post and postal savings bank, is up to his ears in correspondence with leading educators and School Superintendents throughout the country in an effort to have the schools teach pupils proper use of the mails.

To ignorance of the general public in some of the simple requirements in mailing letters, says to Postmaster General, is something astonishing. Car loads of letters, papers and merchandise are lost in the mails each year through this general ignorance as is evidenced by the interesting dead letter auction sales in Washington each winter.

In furtherance of his educational scheme Postmaster General VonMeyer has directed all Postmasters to confer with their local school authorities with a view to have the schools adopt effective methods of instructing pupils as to the general organization and operations of the postal service. He wants postmasters to deliver lectures during school terms on the subject of the delivery of mails, classification of mail matter, registry and money order systems, and the proper addressing of letters.

Would Mortgage the Farm.

A farmer on Rural Route 2, Epimire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Paris People Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow:

Urinary trouble, diabetes, Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. J. W. B. Lee, College Hill, Carlisle, Ky., says: "I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I would never use any other remedy for any trouble arising from inactive kidney. I have sufficient proof to thus assert myself, as I have used them off and on for two years and they have never failed to give me the best results. I first took them for a severe backache and a distressing kidney weakness and the quickly cured me. Since then I have been constantly telling others about their merit, as I believe that for kidney complaint they are unequalled."

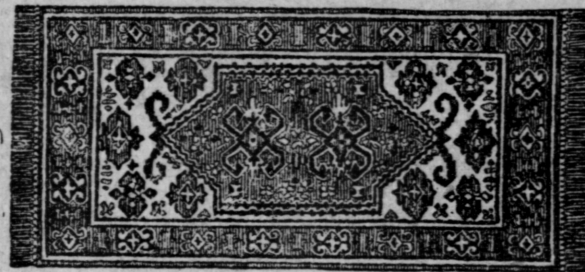

Plenty of proof like this from Paris people. Call at J. A. Wilson's drug store and ask what customers report.

A Roast for Roosevelt.

Joseph Pulitzer, owner and publisher of the New York World, editorially answers President Roosevelt Wednesday, presenting the compliments of the holiday season to the Chief Executive, and declaring he has made so many glaring misstatements in the past that it is impossible to accept his judgment of his conclusions. The World declares that for the first time in American history a paper is to be tried for lese majeste, and declares that neither the King of England nor the Kaiser of Germany would dare go to the lengths traveled by President Roosevelt. He closes by declaring that "The World will not be muzzled."
